"The professionals at Grubb & Ellis | BRE proved to be invaluable partners by providing tactical and strategic advice with regional expertise."

Brian Jordan, President

Associated Builders and Contractors (ABC) is a non-profit, national construction trade organization. A major focus of this organization is the training of apprentices for the subcontractor trades in the construction industry.

Brian Jordan of ABC

"Glenn Arnold and Grubb & Ellis contributed exceptional value by providing effective negotiations and the seamless coordination of two transactions---both in the sale of our former facility and the acquisition of our new one."

Through superior market knowledge, Grubb & Ellis | BRE Commercial and Glenn Arnold were able to discover the perfect property for ABC's unique requirement. ABC is excited and proud of their new state-of-the-art facility.
